Revised November 30, 2020

George King was the president of the Ontario Cooperative Education Association (OCEA) in 1986 -1987. As president, George was tireless in his quest to ensure that OCEA achieved the status of a professional organization that was dedicated to ensuring the best for Cooperative Education – the best resources, the best and most qualified teachers, the best experiences for all students. George believed that no other program in our educational system impacted so directly on the relationship of school to community than Cooperative Education.

In 1991, OCEA's Award of Excellence was renamed "The George King Award of Excellence" to honour the man many believed embodied the very foundation of this award – quality, excellence, integrity.
